

Sample Itinerary 2006 Spring Garden Tour

Saturday or Any Day!

9-11a.m.

Ohio Historical Society Exhibit: Ohio's Garden Path

Ohio Historical Society/Ohio Village. How we lay out our yard, the plants we choose and the time we spend say a great deal about our society and us. What does your yard say about you? Ohio's Garden Path explores the history and interaction of people and their residential landscapes, and how the landscape around our homes has changed in the last century. Adults $7. Students $3. Children 5 and under free. Parking $4. Call for Group Rates.

(April 1, 2005-September 2007)

11:30 a.m.-1p.m.

Lunch

Choose from Polaris Grill, Carrabba's Italian Grill or Max and Erma's, which are just 15 minutes from the Ohio Historical Society and 10 minutes from your next stop, Westerville!

1:30-2p.m.

Something Just for Fun at the Creative Stone Company

See where garden stones are made by a local artist and choose from supplies to make a bookmark or key chain to take home! $3 per person.

2:30-3:30p.m.

Hanby House Tour

Benjamin Hanby composed more than 80 songs, including "Darling Nelly Gray" and "Up on the Housetop". His family's home, which was a stop on the Underground Railroad, is now a museum containing five rooms of original antiques from the Civil War era and some of Ben's original instruments, musical scores and personal artifacts. The Hanby House also features a "kitchen garden" made up of plants from 1850-1890. Guests can see, smell and sometimes taste the culinary, medicinal, dye, fragrance, herbs and vegetables from the late 19th Century. $2 per person. AAA and Senior discounts available.

4-4:45p.m.

Shopping at Crosscreek Gardens

182 North Sunbury Road, Westerville. 614-895-8020

This company's mission is to help their customers enhance God's created beauty by providing plants of superior quality, water gardening and landscape services and unique gifts in a clean, organized and friendly marketplace.
